50 States & Capitals

The 50 States and Their Capitals

Listing capitals is so much fun for me,
In Alabama, you got Montgomery.
And in Alaska, you know Juneau's the boss,
Phoenix in Arizona — Little Rock, Arkansas.

In California we got Sacramento,
Then we go to Denver out in Colorado.
Hartford, Connecticut — Dover, Delaware,
Listing all the state capitals everywhere because...

Fifty states got fifty state capitals,
All around the country, man, it's transnational.
Trying to list them all might sound irrational,
But you gotta start somewhere.

Down in Florida we got Tallahassee,
Atlanta in Georgia — Honolulu, Hawaii.
Boise, Idaho, I don't know the next one,
Capital of Illinois? Springfield's the correct one.
Indianapolis, Indiana — Des Moines, Iowa,
And then Topeka down in Kansas.
Frankfort, Kentucky — then Louisiana's got
Baton Rouge, and we keep running through all the...

Augusta, Maine — Annapolis, Maryland,
Boston, Massachusetts and Lansing, Michigan.
St. Paul, Minnesota then Jackson, Mississippi,
Then in Missouri, it's Jefferson City.

Helena, the capital of Montana,
Lincoln, Nebraska — Carson City, Nevada.
Concord, New Hampshire — Trenton, NJ,
Then down in New Mexico, we got Santa Fe.

In New York, we're talking 'bout Albany,
And then Raleigh, NC — Bismarck, ND.
In Ohio, Columbus leads the way,
And then Oklahoma City in the state of "OK!"

And Salem is the capital of Oregon,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and let's keep it moving on.
Next is Providence in Rhode Island,
Then Columbia down in South Carolina.

Pierre, SD — Nashville, Tennessee,
Austin, Texas — Salt Lake City, UT.
Montpelier, Vermont — Richmond, Virginia,
The state of Washington with the city of Olympia.

Charleston, West Virginia, we're almost done,
Wisconsin's capital, you know it's Madison.
Then a city in Wyoming, that's called Cheyenne,
But let's let the chorus come 'round again, it goes.
