Being a Good Citizen - Answer Key

Use the text to answer each question below.

1. Citizens are people who make up a community. A community is a group of people who live in the same area or have other similarities. Your family is a community. Your classroom is a community. Your soccer team, your neighborhood, your city, and the country you live in are all communities. Good citizens try to make their community a better place. They treat each other with kindness and respect. They do their part to make their community a welcoming and safe place to live.

Which of these is NOT considered a citizen?

A. Librarian

B.

Lamp post

The text says, "Citizens are people who make up a community." A lamp post is not a person.

C. Delivery driver

2. How can we be good citizens in our classroom? We share our classroom with our classmates and teacher. It's important to take care of each other and our classroom. We can take care of each other by being respectful. For example, we can take turns talking so everyone has a chance to speak. We can share with each other and follow the rules that keep us safe. Keeping our space clean is also considered being respectful. It's important to put things back where they belong and clean up after ourselves.

Which of the following is NOT an example of being respectful?

A. Giving others a chance to speak

B. Keeping our space clean

C.

Not sharing with others

*The text says, "We can share with each other and follow the rules that keep us safe."
Sharing is a part of being respectful citizens.*

3. Sometimes showing bravery is an important part of being a good citizen. Bravery is when you do the right thing even though it might seem scary or hard. For example, if you notice a friend being treated unfairly, it can feel scary to speak up. But you can show bravery by lending a hand or asking an adult for help. By speaking up, we are taking care of each other and standing up for what is right.

What is bravery?

- A. Doing things even though they seem scary

The text says, "Bravery is when you do the right thing even though it might seem scary or hard."

- B. Pushing things off for another time

- C. Ignoring safety rules
