

Name _____ Date _____

Geoffrey Chaucer

Select one of the following quotations from “The Canterbury Tales.” What does this quotation mean to you? How does it apply to modern life as well as Chaucer’s time? Explain your answer in one to two paragraphs.

“No empty handed man can lure a bird.”

“Forbid us something and that thing we desire.”

“No master of a household has all of his utensils made of gold; some are wood, and yet they are of use.”

“How potent is the fancy! People are so impressionable, they can die of imagination.”

Date

[illegible]