Greek Mythology - Vocab Cards

---

archipelago]>

a group of islands and the water around them.
Made up of eight major islands in the Pacific Ocean, Hawaii is the only state that is an _archipelago_.

Use this word in a sentence or give an example to show you understand its meaning:

Draw this vocab word or an example of it:

---

deity]>

a god or goddess.
Christianity, Judaism and Islam are based around the belief in one _deity_, while some other religions believe in more than one god.

Use this word in a sentence or give an example to show you understand its meaning:

Draw this vocab word or an example of it:

---

forge]>

to make something (a tool or weapon) by heating and hammering metal.
A bladesmith can _forge_ a knife out of a piece of steel.

Use this word in a sentence or give an example to show you understand its meaning:	Draw this vocab word or an example of it:

polytheism]>

the belief in more than one god.
The ancient Greeks practiced _polytheism_ and worshipped many different gods.

Use this word in a sentence or give an example to show you understand its meaning:	Draw this vocab word or an example of it:

revelry]>

noisy, fun celebration.
I knew the Yankees must have won the game because of the _revelry_ I heard from the fans in the streets.

Use this word in a sentence or give an example to show you understand its meaning:

Draw this vocab word or an example of it:

sacrifice]>

to offer something valuable or precious to a god.
Before a long journey, sailors would often _sacrifice_ a lamb or a goat to please the god of the sea.

Synonyms: offering

Use this word in a sentence or give an example to show you understand its meaning:

Draw this vocab word or an example of it:

trident]>

a spear with three prongs. It is the weapon of Poseidon, the mythological Greek god of the sea.
The sea god holds a _trident_ as a symbol of his power and force.

Use this word in a sentence or give an example to show you understand its meaning:	Draw this vocab word or an example of it:

underworld]>

in certain mythologies, the place where people go when they die.
Hades is the god of the _underworld_, so he rules the souls and spirits of those who have died.

Use this word in a sentence or give an example to show you understand its meaning:	Draw this vocab word or an example of it: