

Directions: Read the following quotation from a 1978 Harvey Milk speech. In the space below, respond to this quotation. What is Harvey Milk suggesting in this statement? Do you agree with him? Why or why not?

Unless you have dialogue, unless you open the walls of dialogue, you can never reach to change people's opinion. In those two weeks, more good and bad, but more about the word homosexual and gay was written than probably in the history of mankind. Once you have dialogue starting, you know you can break down prejudice."
