What a Wonderful World

Directions: One of Louis Armstrong's most famous songs is "What a Wonderful World." It's about the simple things that make life wonderful. Read the lyrics to the song's three verses below. After you read, write your own lyrics by replacing what Armstrong sang. Think about ordinary things you find wonderful, and do your best to make your lines rhyme!

Armstrong's Version

Version 1:

I see trees of green, red roses, too.
I see them bloom for me and you.
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world.

Verse 2:

I see skies of blue and clouds of white,
The bright blessed days, the dark sacred nights.
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world.

Verse 3:

I hear babies cry; I watch them grow.
They'll learn much more than I'll ever know.
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world.
