

Name _____

Date _____

The Statue of Liberty

"Standing Up for Freedom"

She's a monument, that's clear,

'Cause she represents ideas.

It's Lady Liberty,

And she stands for freedom.

Broken chains that are on the ground,

Stand for breaking free from what holds you down.

It's Lady Liberty,

Standing up for freedom.

I'm on a ferry, crossing New York Harbor,

A statue in the distance is growing larger.

It's a statue of a woman looking out at sea,

A symbol of freedom and liberty for you and me.

I can see her halo, halo, halo, a crown with seven rays,

And she holds a torch that stands for how knowledge lights freedom's way.

And liberty means free, don't take for granted, please,

All the things that she means for this country.

She's a monument, that's clear,

Because she represents ideas.

It's Lady Liberty,

And she stands for freedom.

Broken chains that are on the ground,

Stand for breaking free from what holds you down.

It's Lady Liberty,

Standing up for freedom.

She was a gift from the country of France,
Who admired the USA's independent stance.
She was completed in the late 1880s,
Giving hope to the folks coming overseas, finally.
And she holds a tablet, tablet, you can call it a book of laws,
And it holds the date that the US signed the Declaration.
And on her base, take heed, there's a poem to read,
That tells the world, this is home, we shall all be free.

She's a monument, that's clear,
Because she represents ideas.
It's Lady Liberty,
And she stands for freedom.
Broken chains that are on the ground,
Stand for breaking free from what holds you down.
It's Lady Liberty,
Standing up for freedom.

Pulling up to the US is when our eyes met,
Lady Liberty and me, she was nice, yep.
I mean, I know she's just an inanimate object,
But to me liberty, freedom's what she represents.
I wish someone would reprimand my homeland for their violations,
The US isn't perfect, but it is my safe haven.
I felt exiled, didn't know where to go,
Saved up all the loot I could, now New York is my new home.
I wouldn't trade it for the world though,
I love my homeland, but a man had to go.
I wish I could give Lady Liberty a wedding ring,
If you're looking for me, USA is where I'll be, yeah, yeah.

She's a monument, that's clear,
Because she represents ideas.
It's Lady Liberty,
And she stands for freedom.
Broken chains that are on the ground,
Stand for breaking free from what holds you down.
It's Lady Liberty,
Standing up for freedom.