

Name _____ Date _____

Symbols of the USA

A symbol is something, like a picture or sign, that represents something else, usually things that cannot be seen. Take love, for example. We can't see love, but we use a heart as a symbol to represent love.

In the box below, draw two different symbols that you recognize around you. Then write what this symbol represents on the line.

This symbol represents _____.

This symbol represents _____.