

Name _____

Date _____

Tecumseh

Read each question and circle the correct answer.

1. Tecumseh was a { } warrior and war hero.

A. Sioux

C. Pawnee

B. Iroquois

D. Shawnee

2. In which direction were US settlers looking to expand?

A. Northward

C. Westward

B. Southward

D. Eastward

3. What did people call Tecumseh's brother once he began having visions?

A. The Seer

C. The Prophet

B. The Healer

D. The Messiah

4. Prophetstown was the capital of Tecumseh's { } of Native Americans.

A. Army

C. Business

B. Brigade

D. Confederacy

5. William Henry Harrison purchased land through { }.

A. subpoenas

C. loans

B. treaties

D. taxes

6. True or False: Tecumseh believed chiefs should be allowed to sell land.

A. True

B. False

7. Which of the following is true about the Battle of Tippecanoe?

- A. Prophetstown was burned to the ground.
- B. Tecumseh was away while the battle happened.
- C. The Prophet ordered an attack on Harrison's troops.
- D. All of the above.

8. Why did Tecumseh side with the British army in the War of 1812?

- A. He believed the British army had a better combat strategy.
- B. He was paid thousands of dollars to join forces with the British army.
- C. He had met and befriended a British soldier when he was a young man.
- D. He believed Native Americans would get their land back if the British won.

9. Why were Tecumseh and his men outnumbered at the Battle of the Thames?

- A. The British got separated from Tecumseh and his men by a river along the border.
- B. The British retreated, leaving Tecumseh and his men to fend for themselves.
- C. The British switched sides and began fighting with the Americans.
- D. The British were not allowed to cross the border into Canada.

10. Which of the following best describes the effect of Tecumseh's death?

- A. After Tecumseh's death, Prophetstown was rebuilt in his honor.
- B. After Tecumseh's death, The Prophet led Native Americans to victory in the War of 1812.
- C. After Tecumseh's death, his confederacy dissolved and his people lost their land over time.
- D. After Tecumseh's death, William Henry Harrison surrendered the land he had purchased.