

6. An informed voter is one who does which of these?

- A. knows which issues matter most to them
- B. researches the candidates
- C. learns about the candidates' platforms
- D. all of the above

7. Which of these best allows people to hear directly from several candidates at one time about different issues?

- A. an op-ed in the newspaper
- B. a political ad
- C. a campaign rally
- D. a debate

8. Which of these best describes the history of voting rights in the US?

- A. The only major change to voting rights in the US occurred when the 26th Amendment lowered the voting age.
- B. At the founding of the country, voting was a right granted to white, landowning men. Different activists from different eras in history worked hard to expand and protect voting rights for African-Americans, women and other formerly excluded groups.
- C. Voting has been a right granted and protected to men and women of all races since the founding of the country.
- D. At the founding of the country, voting was a right granted only to white, landowning men. A single piece of legislation in 1865 expanded and protected voting rights for men and women of all races.

9. In the US today, a person can be required to do which of these in order to vote?

- A. graduate from a four-year college or university
- B. pass a literacy test
- C. pay a tax at their polling place
- D. register in their state of residence

10. Voter turnout refers to the

- A. percentage of eligible voters who actually cast a ballot.
- B. percentage of citizens meeting the requirements who actually register to vote.
- C. average distance people live from their polling place.
- D. number of people represented by a candidate they did not vote for.