

We the People

The Preamble, or introduction, of the Constitution states, “We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.”

Some people say that the first three words, “We the people,” are the most important part of this statement. Do you agree? Why or why not? Explain your answer in 1-2 paragraphs.
